

anglican single sex schools' sibling discount

St Peter's College, St Peter's Collegiate Girls' School and Walford Anglican School for Girls will support parents wishing to provide their children with the benefits of single sex education based on Anglican values by providing sibling discounts on annual student tuition fees.

Aim

The aim of the collaboration is to provide parents whose children are attending single sex schools associated with the Anglican Church, similar sibling discounts as apply to parents whose children are attending a co-educational School and to offer a financial incentive to families wishing to provide their children with the benefits of a single sex education.

Sibling Discount

The Anglican Single Sex Schools' Sibling Discount:

- Will apply to tuition fees charged to siblings enrolled concurrently at either St Peter's College and St Peter's Collegiate Girls' School and/or Walford Anglican School for Girls.
- Will be applied as if all siblings are attending the same school, therefore a discount will not apply to the first child enrolled, or to the eldest child where siblings are attending school for the first time, in the same calendar year.
- Will be granted by the School in which a sibling is enrolled and will apply to that School's tuition fee only.
- Will not be granted to a student who is receiving a Scholarship, Bursary or any other form of fee remission.
- Will be dependent upon the assessment of an annual application.

Discount Structure

The discount will be applied to each sibling's annual tuition fee by the enrolling School and will be:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|-----|
| - First enrolled child | 0% |
| - Second enrolled child | 10% |
| - Third and subsequent enrolled child | 20% |

Privacy Information

Please refer to the relevant Schools' Standard Collection Notice regarding privacy information.

Process

Please complete the application form and forward it to the Business section of the first child's school prior to the commencement of the school year in which the discount is to be applied.

If approved the relevant School will apply the appropriate discount to the second and subsequent child's school account.

Note: Due to the timing of each school's billing arrangements, discounts may be applied retrospectively.
