Adelaide, the capital city of South Australia, is the fifth largest and most liveable capital city in Australia. In 2021, The Economist Intelligence Unit's Global Liveability Index ranked Adelaide the third most liveable city in the world based on categories including stability, healthcare, education, culture and environment and infrastructure.

A cosmopolitan, modern and affordable city in which to live and work, Adelaide offers connection and accessibility to the outdoors. The Mediterranean-like climate of mild winters and warm summers offers a pleasant living experience, allowing for outdoor activities and recreation throughout the year.

Adelaide is the gateway to world-famous places such as Kangaroo Island and the best wine regions in Australia including the Barossa Valley, McLaren Vale and the Clare Valley. Vineyards and food experiences can be accessed all year round and vast Outback wonders and diverse wildlife are all within easy reach.

The city is known for its vibrant arts and music scene, with numerous festivals, galleries, theatres, and live music venues that offer a rich cultural experience. Adelaide is also recognized as a UNESCO City of Music, with a diverse range of musical genres and performances to enjoy.

With unrivalled sandy beaches, pristine coastline and hills all within 20 minutes of the CBD and St Peter's College, you can choose a lifestyle that suits you while remaining close to work. This unique blend of urban convenience and natural beauty, combined with its relaxed lifestyle, affordability, strong education and healthcare system and safe environment make Adelaide, South Australia a great place to call home.
